

Risk Assessment - Green Beret (16/11/2024)

Giant Jenga GB Base

Bricks as Missiles

Who is at risk?

Users

Controls

Make sure expectations are set out in the beginning
No throwing blocks about.
Explorers to monitor

Reviewed by:

Doug Stack
ACM HCSC
Katy Pearce
EM HCSC

Review

(no data)

Falling Bricks

Who is at risk?

Users

Controls

Make sure that users are aware the tower may fall,
Stand at an appropriate distance if tower is about to collapse
Have first aid box in case of any injuries.
Wear appropriate shoes.
Explorers to verbally monitor and warn users in case of collapse.

Review

(no data)

Heavy blocks in box

Who is at risk?

Users

Controls

Jenga blocks are heavy, Make sure 2 explorers/leaders carry the box together
Lift in appropriate fashion.
Lighten load if too heavy.

Review

(no data)

Over enthusiastic Behaviour

Who is at risk?

Users

Controls

Make sure behaviour expectations are set out at the beginning,
Gentle reminders to bring Scouts back on task.
Explorers to monitor and get a leader if behaviour escalates.

Review

(no data)

Splinters

Who is at risk?

Users

Controls

Make sure equipment is fit for use.
Replace any broken blocks

Review

(no data)

Trip Hazards/Uneven surfaces*Who is at risk?

Users

Controls

Make sure area is free of debris and trip hazards before use.
Clearly light the area to prevent trips.
Any big dips or holes, mark as hazard and verbally tell users on base.

Review

(no data)